CANADIAN GENNETT and STARR-GENNETT 9000 NUMERICAL

Compiled by ALEX ROBERTSON
Assisted by George Humble

The Canadian Gennett No. 9000 series commenced in the summer of 1919, with number 9000 being released in July and number 9001 in September. This series started very slowly with only a few numbers being released each month. It ran until the early part of 1925, the highest number known by the writer being 9632. The retail price at the start was $1.00 but on October 17, 1921, it was reduced to 65 cents in Eastern Canada and 75 cents in Western Canada.

The 9000 series carried the Gennett(c) label but in October 1920 it was changed to Starr-Gennett. It was a gradual change-over. The label colors were navy and gold altho a few of the early releases were royal blue and gold.

Brief History Of The American Gennett

In 1872, James Starr founded the Starr Piano Company in Richmond, Indiana. In 1893, he was joined by John Lumden and Mr. Lumden's son-in-law Henry Gennett. Later on Henry Gennett's three sons, Harry, Fred and Clarence became executives of this company.

In 1915 Starr entered the record business and issued a green and white labelled record known as Starr, the name was changed to Gennett in 1918. In that year, Gennett records were being made by the lateral cut process when Victor brought suit against them for patent infringement in the use of the record cutting stylus. After six trials, the Supreme Court handed down a decision in favor of Starr Piano Company. This was in 1921. Some of the other small record companies who aided Starr in their patent fight were OKeh, Vocalion and the Compo Company of Canada (Mr. Herbert S. Berliner.)

Note: Most of the above information comes from an article in the magazine "The Record Changer" of June, 1953, entitled Those Fabulous Gennetts! by George W. Kay. When I offered to loan my copy to Mr. H. S. Berliner, he declined saying----"Thanks for your offer to let me look at The Fabulous Gennetts! but I know all about the Gennetts, to quote the title of the well-known TV program--I WAS THERE!"

Brief History Of The Canadian Gennett and Starr-Gennett

In April, 1917, Mr. W. D. Stevenson and Mr. J. A. Croden set up an agency in London, Ontario, to handle the distribution of records and phonographs which they imported from the Starr Piano Company, Richmond, Indiana.

Both of these men had been active in the piano business in Canada before starting this venture. The name of the company was the Canadian Phonograph Supply Company. In March 1918, the name was changed to the Starr Company of Canada. The first records imported were the Starr label, a hill and dale type, which was replaced in the Spring of 1918 by the Gennett label which was made by the lateral cut process.

Starr-Gennett had three distributing centres in Canada, namely, Montreal, Saint John, New Brunswick and Regina, Saskatchewan. They also exported to South Africa, China, Australia and New Zealand.

They had a strong selling and distributing force. They advertised extensively and the Starr products were among the best known in their line in Canada. In Montreal they had a number of good outlets including the large French-Canadian Department and Mail Order Store---Dupuis Frères, Limitée, who issued their own Starr-Gennett catalogue.

While Mr. H. S. Berliner's Compo Company started originally as an independent custom pressing plant in January, 1919, it would appear that he did not start pressing for Gennett until June-July 1919. The OKeh and Phonola labels were the first records pressed at this plant, starting in January, 1919.

CANADIAN GENNETT and STARR-GENNETT 9000 NUMERICAL (cont'd)

Matrix Numbers

The Canadian 9000 series drew most of its masters from the Gennett New York recording studio (7000 to 9999), but a small number did come from Richmond (11000 to nearly 20000).

I have shown the take as used on the Canadian records. If I know the take it is shown as follows:

7624 - First Take
7624a - Second Take
7624B - Third Take

If I do not know the Canadian take, it is shown as follows:

7624-

The American and the Canadian 9000 series started off being the same, it was not long before the Canadian series started to change couplings, and later on complete numbers were changed, Later the American 9000 series commenced to insert mostly British recordings into this series. I believe the American series ran to around number 9115.

I would like to thank the following who went out of their way to find Gennett masters for me, the late Walter Allen, Martin Bryan, the late Will Roy Hearne and Brian Rust and George Blacker.

Sources of Information

1. Records

   Mainly from Gennett(c) and Starr-Gennett records and also the tie-in label Apex 400, which worked down from 499 to 384. There were also Gennett masters used for the following labels: Canadian Music Lovers Library, Hydrola, Hectrola, Leonora (Australia), Operaphone and Sun. So far very few numbers of each label have been found.

2. Starr-Gennett Catalogs

   Information from these catalogs was supplied by: Hank Fleischman, the late Ed. Moogk, Jean Jacques Schira, and the Quebec Archives.

3. Music Trade Magazines and Music Magazines

   The Canadian Music Trades Journal from the National Library in Ottawa and the French-Canadian music magazine "La Lyre."

4. Magazines For Record Collectors

   The Record Changer, The Record Research, The Record Exchange, and the Vintage Jazz Mart.

5. Newspaper Advertisements

   Lists of records from both the English and French Montreal newspapers on microfilm.

6. Books

   Jazz Records A-Z, 1897-1942 (Rust). Published by Storyville Publications and Co., 63 Orford Road, London, E17,9NJ.

7. Collectors

   I wish to acknowledge with thanks the help received from many collectors. Also thanks to the following collectors who helped with the revision: Les Airey, Walter de Mohrenschildt, Gene Miller, Jean J. Schira, Mike Sutcliffe and Bert Whyatt.

A Disappointment

While we did get five out of the eight titles of the early Friars Society Orchestra, we got one only out of the fifteen titles made for Gennett by the New Orleans Rhythm Kings. Perhaps the greatest disappointment, on reviewing the Starr-Gennett 9000 series is to note the absence of the great jazz figures, such as King Oliver, Jelly-Roll Morton, Doc. Cook and such groups as The Red Onion Jazz Babies and The Bucktown Five, etc., who were on the American Gennett label during this period, but have not shown up on the Canadian Starr-Gennett.

I have questioned the late Mr. H. S. Berliner and also Mr. Hugh Joseph, for many years at Victor in Montreal, why these records and also the race Victors did not come to Canada, and they both gave me the same answer--NO DEMAND---NO MARKET FOR THEM. For example, Mr. Berliner's race label Ajax had many race items recorded in his studio in New York City and pressed at his plant in Lachine, Quebec, which were not issued in Canada, but shipped back to be sold in the United States.

An Oddity

It is odd that the following three titles which would rightly belong in the 9000 series should be released on the Starr-Gennett 500 series.

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| 584 | 8022B | Three O'Clock In The Morning | Billy Jones |
| - | 8021a | Coal Black Mammy | Ernest Hare |
| 587 | 8111 | Where The Bamboo Babies Grow(Also on Apex 586) | Bailey's Lucky Seven |

The End Of Gennett In Canada

During the final months of 1924 the number of new releases of Starr-Gennett 9000 series became smaller and smaller, with only five for November and one in their newspaper advt. of December. The newspaper advt. of March, 1925 showed eighteen dance titles all of them from Apex 8000 (Plaza Masters), nothing from Gennett.

Later in 1925 the Starr name was acquired by Mr. H. S. Berliner for his Compo Company; the Starr-Gennett head office was moved from London, Ontario to Toronto where it joined Compo's Ontario headquarters under the name of Canada Sales Limited. Eventually the name "Gennett" was dropped from the label and it became "Starr New Process."

Please send any corrections, additions, etc., to: Alex Robertson, 163 Broadview Avenue, Pointe Claire, P.Q., Canada, H9R 3Z5.

Our reviews of these research endeavors are just four words long. "RR recommends them highly"

This Ma Rainey study is indeed a good addition to our growing list of books documenting the careers and history of those who have become an integral part of our American Blues art form. The Rainey tome can now take its place next to Chris Albertson's monumental Bessie Smith book as permanent reference. /LK

Starr-Gennett Catalog - January 1921

This is the front and back cover of a small catalog which shows on the front a Gennett record of the 14000 series. It is violinist, Helen Ware. Both the American and Canadian prices are shown on the label. This is really an American record as the address is shown as Richmond, Indiana. On the back page the word STARR appears to have been stamped above GENNETT.

Starr Catalog

This is the front and back covers and also two pages of advertising for Dupuis Fréres Ltee of Montreal, the large mail order and Dept. store. There is no date on this catalog but I would say it is 1928, likely spring of that year. There are still a few standards from the Starr-Gennett 9000 series being shown in it.

the H$^3$ chrono-matrix file!

Harold H.Hartel

Harold H. Hartel
55 Bane Street
Newton Falls Ohio 44444

from ed. LK:

The file is the brainchild chronological listing with concurring phonograph record matrix (master) numbering by HAROLD H. HARTEL who uses the abbreviated H 3 signet to authenticate himself. Harold has ingeniously 'ravished' the pages of Brian Rust's 4th edition, 2-volume, 1996 page compendium, JAZZ RECORDS 1897-1942. Harold has systematically selected the earliest JR entries in 11897, and has proceeded to carry the chronology (chrono) up through the years. In order to fully appreciate Harold's chrono-Matrix file it is imperative to have Rust's 2-volume set where the real concentrated documentation does lie. For those who do not have these 4th edition volumes -and would like to get them, please write to RR (send return sae or postcard) and we will give you a lead. Harold has also referred to another volume in his files -that being the Godrich-Dixon BLUES and GOSPEL work. Owing to the fact that this volume is now out-of-print, the original as well as the 2nd edition,-and that much of the material has been incorporated into Rust's 4th edition, the original B&G(BG) pages that Harold lists, serve only as a source chain to Rust's 4th edition of his JR.

Now for a brief explanation of H3 Chrono-Matrix files. Any underlined matrix number is presumed to be rejected (eg..Nov.24,1903,C-746-1). And if you see a hyphen in a column where the numerical of the date appears -that means that "during the month, definite date unknown" (eg.. see April 1922 OM5 - Gypsy Blues 20139-2). There's a heck of a lot of abbreviations in the listing. The seasoned researcher will know most of them. Rust's JR volumes will certainly help,too!

EXPLORATORY DISCOGRAPHICAL RESEARCH of the LIBERTY MUSIC SHOP Record

based on Jack Raymond's numerical list.. coordinated by Len Kunstadt

PART SIX

All recording locations presumed to be New York unless otherwise emphatically listed as New York or other geographic locations.

L-230 EDGAR FAIRCHILD at the Piano
P22608-1 Mar 22 1938 Medley from Goldwyn Follies (Gershwin-Gershwin-Duke): Love Walked In, Spring Again, I Was Doing All Right
P22609-2 " " " Please Be Kind, Thanks for the Memory, I Can Dream Can't I (Cahn-Chaplin-Robin-Rainger-Kahal-Fain)

---Main Source: Brian Boyd stat; date from ARC files. Boyd further notes that the label for P22609 shows P22609-1 -also he mentions that there is an "uncredited rhythm acc (guitar and bass?). Incidentally the ARC files list coupling as "Fairchild Trio".

L-231 ROBERT McBRIDE, FERN SHERMAN, BERT SHEFTER Instr. Trio
Master? Date? Sweet Sue
" " China Boy

---Only Source: Raymond's numerical.(RR181/2). More statistics requested.

L-232 ELSIE HOUSTON •Acc. by Augusto Mesquita-Guitarra Antonio Silva v.Blao(last word somewhat oblit).
#Bongo Drum Acc. Jose Garcia
1757 Date? #Jongo (Brazilian Magic Song)
1758 " •Fado (Portuguese Love Song)

---Main Sources: Bob Colton and David Diehl statistics. Dave thinks that there may be a tie-in with U.S. Record Corp.(Eli Oberstein) as the run-off looks like it. Att: Dave! Can you re-check your copy and look for composer credits plus any other numerals or letters found on label or in run-off grooves near masters or anywhere??

L-233 JOHNNY PAYNE at the Piano
1760 date? Love For Sale
1761 " Country Boy

---Main Source: Colton statistics -more research req.

L-234 WALTER & BOWERS Two-Piano Medley
"-A 1806B Date???????? I Married An Angel-Medley (Rodgers-Hart) I Married An Angel, How To Win Friends and Influence People
"-B 1807A " " " I Married An Angel-Medley (Rodgers-Hart) Spring Is Here, I'll Tell The Man In The Street

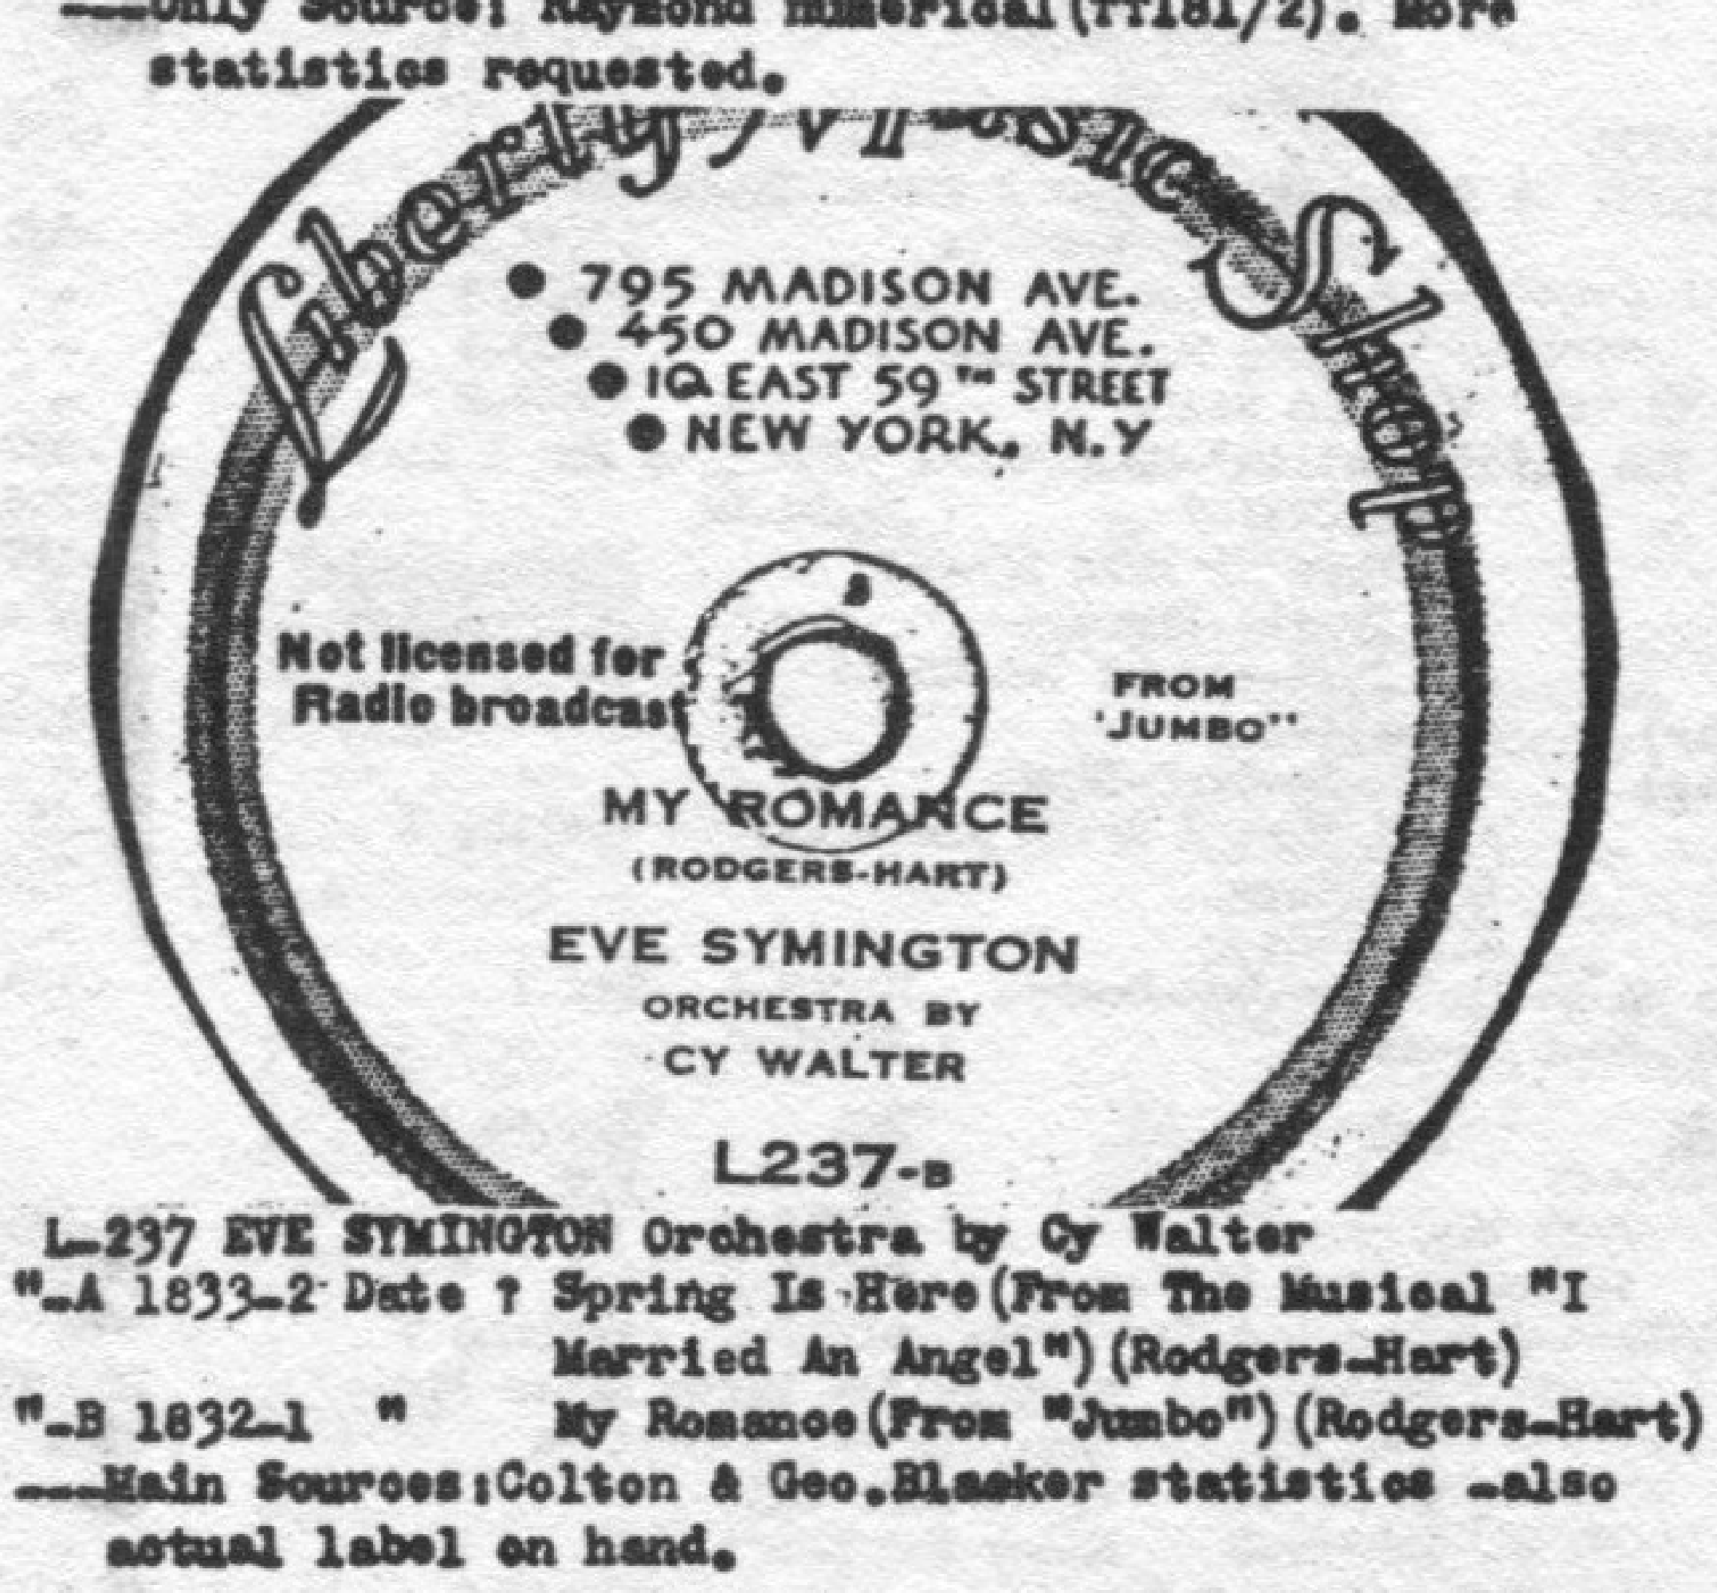
---Main Source: the above except for the date came from the actual label on hand. Now here's an intriguer! When LK checked the ARC files he found a listing of Cy Walter and Gil Bowers doing the above tunes BUT masters P22970 and P22971 and a May 21,1938 were indicated. Are these ARC listings the same as those listed above on the Liberty Music Shop coupling???

L-235 AUDRIE CHRISTIE
Master?Date? At The Roxy Music Hall
" " How To Win Friends

---Only Source: Raymond numerical (RR181/2). More Statistics requested.

L-236 WYNN MURRAY
Master?Date? A Twinkle In Your Eye
" " Did You Ever Get Stung

---Only Source: Raymond numerical(TT181/2). More statistics requested.



L-237 EVE SYMINGTON Orchestra by Cy Walter
"-A 1833-2 Date ? Spring Is Here(From The Musical "I Married An Angel")(Rodgers-Hart)
"-B 1832-1 " My Romance(From "Jumbo")(Rodgers-Hart)

---Main Sources: Colton & Geo.Blacker statistics -also actual label on hand.

Attention! Please note that a procession of 1700/1800 master and/or control numbers have begun. Can anyone bring to light their origin. The pressings do ake Varsity-style recordings! Are we right? See L-232 for Diehl's comments too.

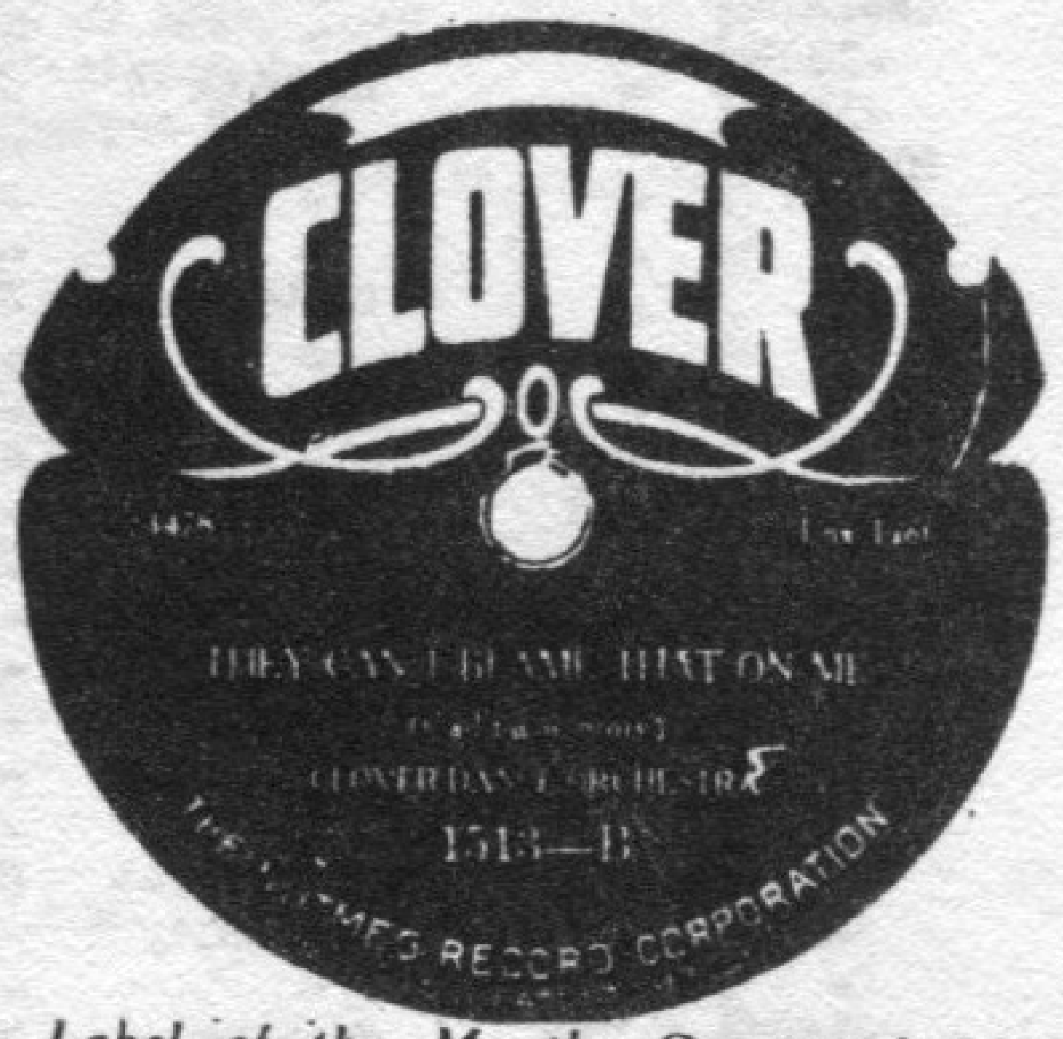
"THE NUTMEGS"

Re-print from Record Changer March 1953

Label of the month this time in brief is: Marathon, credited on the label to The Nutmeg Record Corporation (which also takes credit for the Clover label), a 7 inch disc which, by close grooving, attains 3 minutes of music on each side. Our example is Marathon 192. Side shown is My Heart Stood Still (31241-2) as by Southern Melody Serenaders and the reverse is I Can't Forget You (31248-2) as by Pennsylvania Dance Syncopators. Label is black with all printing and the band around the outer edge of the label in gold. Masters stamped in wax with typescript like that of latter day Emerson (i.e: Consolidated Recording Corp.), Dandy, etc. These are electrically recorded by full-size dance bands using tuba and banjo in the rhythm section. Both sides sound like same band and vocalist despite labels and there is a hot but short trumpet and sax solo on second side. We guess 1929-1930 as time of issue. Can anyone add anything?



Re-print from Record Changer Sept. 1953

Label of the Month: Our good friend. Perry Armagnac of New York City, supplies our warm weather entry, Clover. This label was claimed by The Nutmeg Record Corporation which also took credit for the seven inch Marathon close-grooved disc we had as label of the month in the March column. A very colorful label, Clover, and we'll describe it as best we can. The name Clover appears in gold-outlined white letters, upon a light red background which forms most of the upper part of the label. All other lettering is in gold, upon a dark blue background forming the lower part of the label. The short stripe above the word Clover is in pink and the circular stripe around the edge of the label is white. Side shown is They Can't Blame That On Me (3478-1) as by Clover Dance Orchestra on Clover 1513. Reverse is Dear One (3490-1 in wax, but 3509 on label) as by Halley and His Orchestra. We can list three other Clovers: 1519—Southern Rose (3488-2)/ Then You Know That You're in Love (3496-2) as by Southern Syncopators/ Miami Society Orchestra; 1639—Roll 'Em, Girls (3758) w/vocal by George Beaver/ My Sweetest Memory (3766) as by California Melody Syncopators/Clover Dance Orchestra; and 1736—Breezin' Along with the Breeze (3926)/Someone is Losin' Susan (3932) as by Marlborough Dance Orchestra/Pennsylvania Syncopators. Clover seems to have drawn from both Grey Gull and Consolidated Recording Corp. (the latter Emerson, Dandy, Bell, etc.). Both of these outfits used 3000 masters, so it is difficult to tell which is which. It is possible that those masters with take numbers are Grey Gull in origin while those without takes are Consolidated. One certainty is that the side shown in our cut (3478-1) is Grey Gull and appears on their label, Radiex. One side of Radiex 1242 is this same title (3478 A4) as by Cosmopolitan Dance Orch. The -1 on Clover and the "A" on Radiex must both indicate the first take as these two are identical by aural comparison. Probably Grey Gull and Nadsco 1242 would both be the same title as Radiex although the band credits might be changed. Anyone with more data on any of the above labels, their operators, tie-ins, listings, etc., is requested to furnish same to us. And did Nutmeg Record Corp. originate any masters of its own?

As indicated in our last issue (RR193/4) where we re-printed Carl K's Yerkes Dance Records "Label of the Month" column from the Record Changer - we are continuing the re-prints. We recommend that you utilize Brian Rust's American Record Label Book as a companion research vehicle.

THE COMPLETE CAPITOL DISCOGRAPHY

By D. TOBORG PART THREE (cont'd)
1962 to 1973

There are some Capitol prefixes which may need some clarification.

T is the monaural LP listing. (S)T means it was released in both monaural and stereo versions. (D)T is Duophonic sound recordings released in both mono and stereo. ST means it was only released in stereo. EAP is the Extended Play code as regards 45 EP recordings. Some of the multi artist LPs have the number of records identified within the prefix. STBB is a 2 record set and STFL is a 6 record set. PROM is the promotional code. I am almost certain that there are promotional releases of all recordings but we have only listed those promotional recordings which have become known to us.

Corrections and additions are welcome especially as far as the Nelson and Gillette unverified release numbers goes.

The footnotes on the following research refer to these numbers:
(1) On Ken Nelson's list unverified by us.
(2) On Lee Gillette's list unverified by us.
(3) On Ken Nelson's and Lee Gillette's lists unverified by us.
(4) We believe this to be an alternate take.

JOHN SAM LEWIS

 THE CENTENARIANS -Part 2 (concluded) ******
Exit Percy Grainger! Entry GEORGES ENESCO!!
(for Messrs.Bartok, Stravinsky, Petri and Grainger see last issue for first part of this Centenarians salute)

Percy Grainger was somewhat eccentric especially in his later years. His last years were spent in suburban New York. Once while in New York's Record Hunter store I heard another customer exchanging Grainger stories with one of the clerks who remembered Grainger as a frequent visitor to the store in the 1950s. Perhaps his will illustrated his eccentricity more than anything else; he left his skeleton to the Melbourne medical school. Perhaps his bones are still there.

The Romanian composer, violinist, conductor, and pianist Georges Enesco was born in 1881 and died in 1955. It could be argued that Enesco (also spelled Enescu), because of his wide interests, dissipated his various talents. His two Romanian Rhapsodies are still popular and are performed from time to time, and he wrote several attractive violin and piano works, but he is likely to be remembered principally as a teacher and inspiring force.

Enesco's principal violin teacher had been the younger Joseph Hellmesberger (1853-1907). Later he attended the Paris Conservatory and studied violin with Joseph Marsick, who also taught Fritz Kreisler, and composition with Jules Massenet. His career as a violinist began while he was still in his teens and continued until he chose to settle down as a teacher in Paris in the late-1920s. His pupils were quite noted and included such violinists as Arthur Grumiaux, Christian Ferras, Guila Bustabo, and Ida Haendel; but perhaps the most noted of his disciples were Dinu Lipatti and Yehudi Menuhin.

Georges Enesco was Lipatti's godfather, and apparently Lipatti's parents wished him to become a violinist. But young Dinu (the name is a diminutive of Constantine) preferred the piano, and though Enesco was a most competent pianist he could not act as a principal teacher for what was to become one of the most remarkable pianistic talents of the twentieth century. Lipatti eventually studied with Alfred Cortot; but by the time he went to Cortot the young Romanian was already a finished pianist. The world at large did not realize that fact until after World War Two when Lipatti, a victim of leukemia, made a small but unforgettable number of recordings. Lipatti died in 1950 at the age of 33.

Lipatti and Enesco recorded together in Romania. In fact Enesco even made a piano recording of part of his own Piano Suite No. 1, the only piano recording Enesco seems to have made. Enesco also played the cello and organ but never recorded on these instruments. He and his godson recorded Enesco's Second and Third Violin Sonatas together. All these, together with Lipatti performing two of his own compositions, were released on an obscure French two-LP set that I happened to find in the HMV shop on Oxford Street in London. The two violin sonatas (same performances) came out on Monitor several years ago, but I don't think the Lipatti compositions have ever appeared on a U. S. label. The French set (Deesse DDLX 40/41) has copious photographs including one of a four-year old Dinu. Unfortunately I could not get a clean copy of the picture for reproduction here. It's a jewel. Enesco is shown placing a laurel wreath on the forehead of his little godson, who, by the way, holds a tiny violin. He had not apparently yet chosen the piano as his principal instrument then.

John! Don't give up. We will give it a try, reproduction-wise..and see what happens. IT'S definitely a great photo of ENESCO and his Godson, little DINO LIPATTI...

Yehudi Menuhin studied with Enesco for several years, his other teachers having been Louis Persinger (who also taught Bustabo, Isaac Stern, and Ruggiero Ricci) and Adolf Busch. One of Menuhin's stories reveals what a feat of memory Enesco was capable of. Once during a lesson Maurice Ravel burst in with a manuscript copy of his violin sonata.

"Let's try it," Enesco said, and proceeded to sight-read the work. That was an astonishing feat in itself, but then Enesco closed the book, said to Ravel, who accompanied on the piano, "let's try it one more time," and proceeded to play it from memory. Needless to say, Yehudi Menuhin was flabbergasted by the seemingly impossible feat.

I doubt that my friend the Panamanian violinist Alfredo de Saint-Malo, who recorded for Victor and Columbia before the war, would believe that story. When Ravel toured the U. S. in 1928 he and Saint-Malo performed the sonata in Boston and elsewhere. Saint-Malo told me that he found the sonata very difficult, especially the first movement. I replied that I thought the second "Blues" movement was interpretively even more difficult than the first. "Yes," Mr. Saint-Malo replied, "Ravel told me to play it with no vibrato and with good tone!" For readers who are not familiar with violin playing Ravel's request is contradictory. One must use some vibrato to achieve a good tone. One must remember that Ravel was not a violinist and perhaps did not comprehend what he was asking performers to do.

Very recently I found an album of 78 records at a charity book sale on half-price day and ended up with twelve 78s for $3.50 or 29.1666¢ per record. Three of the records were duplications, but the Bach Double Concerto (a two-record set), played by Menuhin and Enesco with the great Pierre Monteux conducting, appeared to be in much better shape than the copy I already had. That proved to be the case; all but one of the records in the album were N- or N condition (the one that wasn't did not matter to me). Yehudi Menuhin recorded the two Bach solo violin concerti with Enesco conducting, but Georges Enesco made no attempt to conduct while playing the second violin part. The Double Concerto was recorded in 1932 and may have been Enesco's last commercial 78 recording as a violinist (the two Bach solo violin concerti, which Enesco conducted, were done in 1935 and 1936). After the war Enesco made some LPs for Remington. His recordings of the complete Bach solo violin sonatas and partitas, done for Remington, have been reissued, but his other Remingtons are very scarce.

Before the HMV sessions with Menuhin Georges Enesco had made a few acoustical and electrical recordings for Columbia. These are extremely rare and most fetch very high prices when they do turn up. Probably the material Enesco chose to record seemed esoteric at the time and the records did not sell well. Veritas produced a short-lived LP reissue of four of Enesco's finest Columbias, but even the LP is hard to find. The Veritas included Corelli's "La Follia," Op. 5, No. 12; Handel's Sonata No. 4; two movements from Pugnani's Sonata, Op. 8, No. 3; and (one of my favorite violin works) the Chausson "Poème." All of these works were solo violin with piano accompaniment by an excellent pianist, Sanford Schlussel, even the Corelli and Chausson. The last is a beautiful performance despite the fact that I miss the orchestral accompaniment. The Enesco reading of "La Follia was doubtless the first recording ever made of that now well-recorded work; I was told that a copy of the original Columbia set of "La Follia" fetched over $100.

At any rate, despite his eminence as a violinist, Georges Enesco's discography is distressingly small. His heyday as a violin virtuoso was the first two decades of this century. Later, he fulfilled guest conducting assignments (he was highly regarded as a conductor but there are few recordings of Enesco in that role) and preferred to teach rather than to perform. Enesco was not interested in personal wealth; so long as he had basic necessities and a studio to work in he was content. Therefore the sure-fire career as a traveling virtuoso had little appeal to him. A stroke, after his return to Paris in 1946, made public appearances impossible; the left side of his body was paralysed. In the mid-1930s he had served a two-year hitch as principal guest conductor of the New York Philharmonic but apparently never returned to the U. S. after World War Two.

In a way Georges Enesco may have delved into too many things. Perhaps his interests were too wide. The few records he left us do not quite bear out the reputation he had in his youth for flights of virtuosity; rather they suggest a performer more interested in projecting the music than in dazzling an audience. His choice of recorded repertory, Bach, Handel, Corelli, and the like, also suggests a performer who is not in the least interested in showing off. It would be presumptuous though to maintain that Enesco should have pursued a violin soloist's career alone. The influence and inspiration he had on his pupils argues against that.

DIGGIN' THE GROOVES
BOB DAVENPORT

Two exciting releases from Biograph (P.O. Box 109, Canaan, N. Y. 12029) that should be a welcome addition to many collectors libraries:

Biograph BLP-C-16 is the Boswell Sisters, Vol 2, 1930-1935m which not only features one of the very best gal trios of all times, but some great jazz names as well, including Bunny Berigan, Tommy Dorsey, Jimmy Dorsey, Carl Kress, Artie Bernstein, Benny Goodman, to name just a few. Super release!

Historical HLP-37 is "Hoagy Carmichael Stardust, 1927-1932". These are very early Hoagy with his orch., and it's interesting to read on the LP jacket that he plays piano and cornet on the 11/11/27 session of "Stardust". As in the item above, some fine jazz musicians were on these sessions. Men like Tommy Dorsey, Glenn Miller, Jimmy Dorsey, Perry Botkin, Gene Krupa and Joe Tarto, again to name just a few. - - Both of these are long-awaited items and I highly recommend them to all.

I found Broadway BR 111 (Broadway Intermission, Box 100, Brighton, Mi 48116) a pure delight. It's called "Crosbyana", featuring some of his super radio air shots. Such guests as Joe Venuti, Red Nichols, Peggy Lee, Louis Armstrong and Tommy Dorsey appear with Bing, and the latter playes trombone with the John Scott Trotter band accompanying Bing on "Diane" which is a gas, featuring the old Dorsey-like chorus backing Bing in counter-point.

Our attention is now turned to Joyce Music (Box 1707, Zephyrhills, Fla 33599) and to five items, all in their "One Night Stand" series:

Joyce 1097 Features Benny Goodman at the Meadowbrook (East and West) covering two broadcasts, one on 9/20/41 and the other on 1/26/46. Peggy Lee and Tommy Taylor handle two of the vocals, the rest being instrumentals.

Joyce 1098 takes us back to 1/28/47 (and a 1944) broadcast by the fine Charlie Spivak band, with Tommy Mercer, Margaret Manning and The Stardusters sharing mike honors.

Joyce 1100 brings us the continuing sage of the Stan Kenton "Encore" shows, this one from Nov. 25th & 27th, 1952. If you like Kenton you'll enjoy these.

Joyce 1101 brings back the battling Dorseys in two air shots from their Casino Gardens ballroom (9/19/46 & 9/25/46). The various cuts alternate the individual bands, and on the tune "Brotherly Jump" it's the combined bands blowin' up a storm. The vocalists heard on this reissue are Dee Parker (JD), Stuart Foster (TD), Charlie Shavers (TD), Bob Carrol (JD).

Joyce 1102 takes us back to 1938 and 1941 for two broadcasts by the Gene Krupa band with Irene Daye and Anita O'Day heard on the various vocals. As always, the Krupa band really swings, and oh! those drums! No wonder that man sweat a jug full during every set!

Last issue I told you about that great "Hooked On" series that RCA has been coming out with, and the latest I have is "Hooked on Classics II" on AFL1-4373 with Louis Clark conducting the Royal Philharmonic Orch. with the Royal Choral Society. Looks like RCA has a winner in this series, with Larry Elgart's "Hooked On Swing" already gone Gold!

From Canada two very interesting items next you should know about. On Camden CAL-776 titles "The West, a Nest and You", which was the theme song of one of Canada's finest dance bands, Mart Kenny & His Western Gentlemen. Since this was sent to me by a friend up that way I'm afraid I can't give you any info where you can find it, except you might try your favorite record shop and see if they'll special order it for you.

The other item, also featuring Mart Kenney & His Western Gentlemanis on World Records WRS1-101 (World Records, Box 2000, Bowmanville, Ontario, L1C 3Z3, Canada) is a special 50th Anniversary musical tribute album, and contains releases from 1938, 1941, 1951, 1945 and 1964. Norma Locke (Mrs. Mart Kenney), Wally Koster, Georgia Dey and a fine singer and musician (he played piano and reeds in the band), Art Hallman,, on vocals.

This band attracted my attention way back in the late 30's when they had several releases on Bluebird in this country.

Moving on to the progressive scene, I have received two releases from this company lately (Progressive Records, P.O. Box 500, Tifton, Ga 31794).

PRO 7018 is an "All Star Trombone Spectacular", and if you like trombone music this is for you! Seven of 'em playing with rhythm accomp. Just like the old jam sessions we all used to love so much.

PRO 7057 is called "Flute Juice", and Frank Wess does wonders with that instrument. He's accomp. by Chuck Wayne, guitar; Tommy Flanagan, piano; George Mraz, bass; and Ben Riley, drums.

H & D 630 (Harris & Dyer, P.O. Box 34, Teaneck, N.J. 07666) features "More Giants of Jazz" with that super sax man, Ted Harris. The man blows cool! And, some fine backing by Hank Edmonds (piano), Vernel Fournier (drums), Ray Drummand (bass), Rixhard Williams (trumpet), Kiane Zawadi (trombone & euphonium), and Charles Williams (alto sax).

As I write these lines the big Fall release has not yet arrived from Hindsight, nor can I even give you a clue as to what's coming. You'll just have to wait until next issue. But if past history is any indication each and every one should be well worth the money.

And while they have not arrived as yet, I can tell you that RCA in their Oct. release has two new Bluebirds, and both by Charlie Barnet. The first is Vol. V in the series and it's on AXM2-5587, while the other is Vol. VI and is on AXM2-5590. I have a feeling they're gonna be welcome additions in this Bluebird series.

Folks! Here it is again. After many years as a most sought after collectors item book it's now back in print, thanks to DaCapo. If you have not a copy why not get one while they're still around. The Doubleday printing was sold out to the last copy. It's $30.00 post paid and you can remit to me, Len Kunstadt. I'll be happy to autograph it for you. Thank you.
